

Ideas are springing forth:

February is a month of celebration, starting this Saturday, February 2, with a reception for artist of the month, Vi Denluck. Vi is a wonderful hand quilter and creator of miniature quilts. It will be a very special show.

Carnival is under way in Venice and New Orleans is buzzing with Mardi Gras preparations. Let Loralie inspire you with her Mardi Gras Femmes and masks fabrics for quick table runner and napkins, and wine bag. Add a few glass bead necklaces, chocolate doubloons, stuffed animals and maybe a king cake to celebrate in style on February 7.

The year of the Golden Rat and China Town celebrations will also begin February 7th. On Saturday the 10th enjoy stage show performances and a visit by the dragon, right outside of Satin Moon. Drop by for tea, cookies and prizes. Marvel at Denise's stunning year of the rat table setting based on Ursula's "Spirals". A limited number of kits will be available.

An exciting hot off the press adventure in August, is the SATIN MOON CRUISE to APQN in Seattle. Now is the time to sign up for summer fun!

Let us inspire you!
